Obituary

Nekia Tawan Carswell, the beloved daughter of Donald and Eunice Carswell, was born in Brooklyn, New York on July 20, 1976. She departed this life on January 6, 2002.

Nekia was educated through the New York City Public School System and later attended Reidsville High School where she received her high school diploma for her achievement in her studies.

Nekia was presently continuing her education at South Eastern Technical College and was set to graduate in March 2002 with an Associate Degree in Paralegal Studies. She was also currently a devoted member of Harvest Time Faith Center and many organizations including The Voices of Praise and The Praise Dancers.

Nekia was the youngest of six children, with two brothers, Stevie Carswell and Donald Carswell, Jr., both of Brooklyn, New York, preceding her in death.

Her smile and love will forever be cherished by her parents Donald and Eunice Carswell of Reidsville, Georgia; her two loving children, Octavia Danae Brown and Christopher Conley Brown, both of Reidsville, Georgia; one sister, Alicia Carswell of Brooklyn, New York; two brothers, Allen Carswell and Willie Carswell, both of Brooklyn, New York; two loving nieces and one nephew, Tinisha, Kawonya, and Christian Carswell, all of Brooklyn, New York; her loving best friend, Wanda Brown of Reidsville, Georgia; her friend, Calvin Kelley of Reidsville, Georgia; her loving church family, Pastor Bernard and Valentina Hill; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many dear friends.

My Friend

N is for being so nice

E is to everything you have done

K is for the kind things that you said

I is for the importance you held in my life

A is for always being my very best friend

*Love,
Wanda Brown*
